Rep. Joe Wilson to speak at Boy Scout fundraiser

145

Rep. Joe Wilson, Congressman for the Second District of South Carolina will be the keynote speaker at the 2010 Black River District Friends of Scouting Banquet.

The event will be held at 6:30 p.m. Monday, Feb. 22 at the Tara Ballroom, Litchfield Beach & Golf Resort, 14276 Ocean Hwy (US 17), in Pawleys Island.

An avid Scouter, Rep. Wilson is the proud father of four Eagle Scouts.

"We are delighted that Rep. Wilson will be joining us as we celebrate the 100th Anniversary of the Boy Scouts of America," said Joe Crosby, Black River Friends of Scouting Chairman.

Funds raised from this event will go to support the growing Cub Scout, Boy Scout, Venturing and Exploring programs in Georgetown County.

A limited number of seats are available for the dinner and private reception.

For more information on attending the event, please contact Joe Crosby at 843-546-3103 before Feb. 12.
